Unsolved mystery of the ages: why can't people purr?

CATS!!

“The cat is attached to the home; the dog, to the master.”

A cat raises his tail in greeting, much as a man would raise his hat.

PAULIE. A polite gentleman with one wife, one child, and 17 acres to garden.

WORD PUZZLERS

Can you fill in the missing numbers?

1.

4. Start with the word TABLETS. Take away one letter and rearrange the remaining letters to form a new word, then take away another letter and form another word, until you are left with a one-letter word. (There is more than one way to solve this puzzle.)

6. You can play this game all by yourself (you will need pencil and paper) or with any number of friends. You begin with a three letter word. The next player changes just one letter to form another word, and so on. The first player who repeats a word or is not able to think of a word is out. To play alone, just write down the words, changing one letter each time. Here are two sample lists of words.

Try starting your game with one of these words:

- | | | |
|-----|-----|-----|
| HUM | BIG | RAT |
| WIN | PAT | SEE |

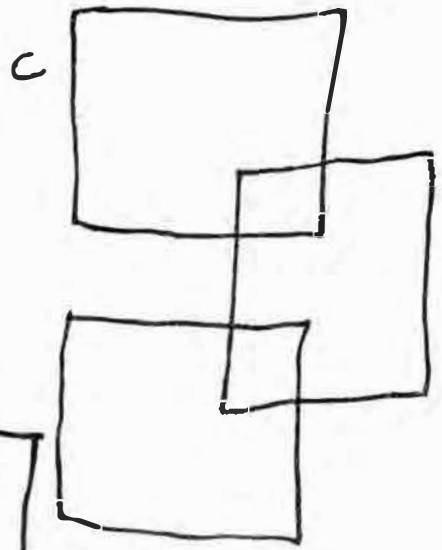

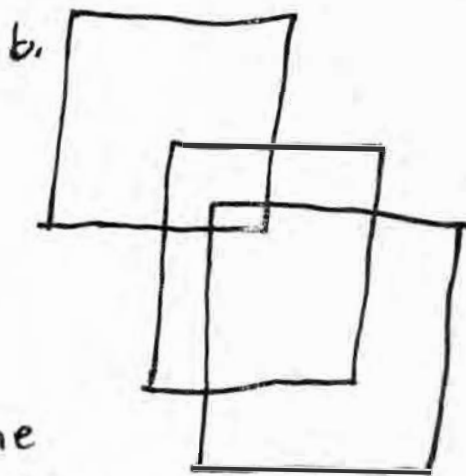

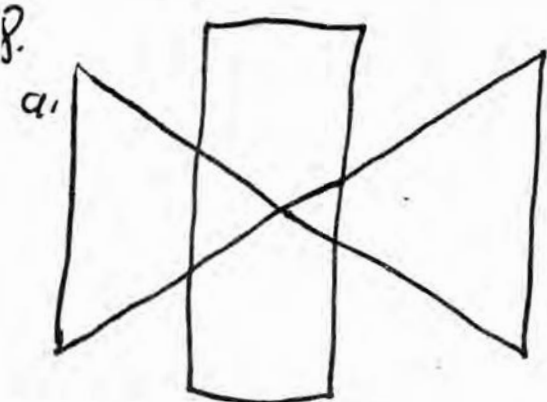

- | | | |
|----|-----|-----|
| ex | TAP | ROB |
| | TOP | COB |
| | TOE | COT |
| | HOE | CAT |
| | HOT | HAT |
| | POT | HIT |
| | PET | HUT |
| | MET | BUT |
| | WET | BIT |
| | WEE | SIT |
| | BEE | SIN |
| | BET | FIN |
| | BEG | FIG |
