I went back to Stephenville from another excursion and had lunch for a while. Then after lunch, I wanted to take a different route back to the interstate. I took Highway 281 to I-20, but did not realize the little bit of backtracking I would be doing since it wasn't the more direct way back to I-20. However, I discovered that this road went right by a store I had been to before. Located just northwest of Lipan, I visited the Texas Hill Country Furniture over ten years ago. I remember the place because of the large rocking chair out front. So, I stopped. I wanted to look at the rocking chair and to go inside the store. There were several other stores in a row besides the Texas Hill Country Furniture that might or might not have been there a decade ago when I visited last. I vaguely remembered the inside of the store, and I remembered some of the things I bought there then!

The rocking chair was declared the World's Largest Cedar Rocking Chair in 2003. It appears that another rocking chair beat this record by over double the size in 2015.

de Stolfe Journal ★★★ Broadsheets

I hope you enjoy these de Stolfe Journal Broadsheets!

I started these broadsheets as a means to reduce the number of pages for the regular journal issues. (And let's face it, you don't have time to read 50+ pages of the regular journal when not every topic in them might be of interest to you!) My broadsheets are single topics of special interest in a horizontal page format and restricted to ten pages or less (usually).

de Stolfe Journal.....

The de Stolfe Journal is a publication made by Robert-George de Stolfe. The first issue was published in March 1986 as the de Stolfe Journal and published irregularly until 1998 (17 issues total). The Candid variety of the Journal started in July 2012, with a production of over 60 regular and special issues, with now the Candid dropped from the name. Archives of all issues—including the original ones (1980s-1990s)—are available on the website: www.destolfe.com
